

Social Story- BRRR!

BRRR! Is a theatre show about a penguin named Steve, his brother Stanley and their friend, Beryl the bird.

We would like you to enjoy watching the show, so we have put together some information about the performance so that you know what to expect.

Please don't talk during the performance, otherwise you might miss bits of the story. During the show, you may hear people in the audience laughing. If you find something funny then you can laugh too.

The show is performed by actors on a set. Here is a picture of what the set looks like.

When you walk in to take your seat to watch the performance, the space will look quite dark, and you will be able to hear some sounds in the background.

The character on the left in this photo is Steve the penguin. The character on the right is called Stanley. He is Steve's younger brother and is also a penguin.

This is a picture of Steve's uncle, Uncle Hugo. Beryl and Steve visit Uncle Hugo in South Africa.

During the performance, the characters may move off of the stage and walk into the audience. If they talk to you, then you can speak to them. They will go back on stage and carry on with the show.

The performance will last for about 55 minutes. When the performance has finished, the characters will hold hands and bow. The audience will clap. You can join in with the clapping if you enjoyed the show.

We hope you enjoy watching BRRR!
